Daddy,

When I told you I want to marry Mike, you said a 22-year-old girl is too young to get married. You also think it's dangerous to marry a man I've known for only one year. But I don't think so. I'm smart and old enough to know Mike loves me, and we've known each other well enough to start a family.

Mike used to smoke a lot and wear long hair. But he stopped smoking because I hate the smell. He also cut his hair short because I don't like men with long hair. Isn't it great to marry a man who changes himself for me?

Amy

Amy,

I think you've known Mike long enough as a friend, but maybe not long enough to marry him. You're still young, and I hope you can take more time to understand him better. Mike's changes show he cares about you. But you both should know love doesn't really mean changing or even losing oneself.

I'm worried about you because I love you. I never thought my little girl might leave me so early. But if you think you're ready for a new life, I will see you off with smiles and best wishes.

Daddy

- (A) 29. What is Amy trying to tell her father?
(A) Mike is the right person for her.
(B) Mike cares a lot about her family.
(C) She feels sorry about breaking her father's heart.
(D) She thanks her father for what he has done for her.
- (D) 30. What can we learn about Amy's father?
(A) He has known Mike for over one year.
(B) He will not let Amy leave him so early.
(C) He thinks love means changing for another person.
(D) He is afraid Amy has not thought carefully enough.
- (C) 31. What do we know from the reading?
(A) Mike is too young for Amy.
(B) Mike does not like a girl who smokes.
(C) Amy thinks she is ready for a new life.
(D) Amy loves Mike the way he used to be.

There are many kinds of dances, but each has its own rules.

When we dance, we follow different rules.

We move to the front or stay in the back.

We dance close together or leave lots of space for each other;

We dance excitedly or slowly to fast or sweet music;

We dance to show how we feel in happy or sad times.

Sometimes we dance with people;

Sometimes we dance solo.

Yes, we dance differently;

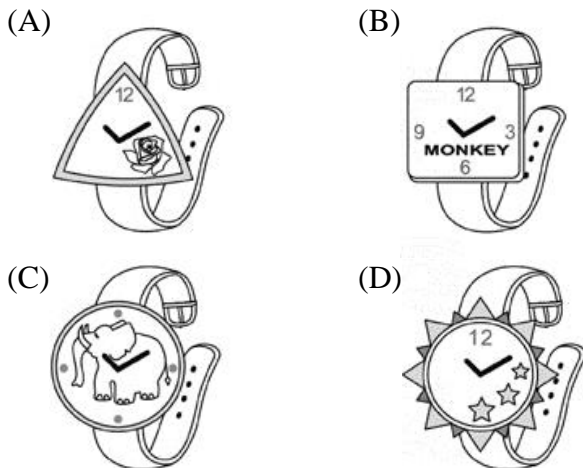

But we won't dance without rules.

Word Museum

Did you know the meaning of a word may change over time? Many English words we know now had different meanings a long time ago. One example is the word nice.

Around the year 1300, nice was first used in English to mean 'stupid.' Two hundred years later, nice began to carry a "better" meaning. If people said a book was written nicely, they meant the book was written 'clearly' or 'carefully,' not 'stupidly.' After 1800, nice began to take its modern meanings like 'kind' or 'friendly.' Since then, people have thought of nice as a word with "good" meanings.

A "good" change of a word's meaning like this example of nice is called AMELIORATION. Though we don't use nice to mean 'stupid' anymore, it is fun to know how much a word's meaning can change from its start!

⇨ For more examples of AMELIORATION, see next page.

Lin-hua: Mom, can I put my pet fish into the river?
Mom: No! When you bought it, you told me you'd take care of it, remember?
Lin-hua: But now I want it to live free.
Mom: I think you're just tired of keeping it. Also, if your pet fish comes from another country, it may bring some problems for the living things in our country after you put it into our river. Haven't you heard about the fire ants from South America? Since they were brought to Taiwan, they've made lots of trouble for the animals and plants here.
Lin-hua: But I read a newspaper report which said that in New Zealand, animals and plants from other countries aren't always trouble-makers. With these new friends, New Zealand has become a country with many different kinds of animals and plants.
Mom: Well, I just want you to think twice before you do anything. Now, the floor is dirty because of your jumping fish. Please go mop the floor.

- (D) 40. What is talked about in the newspaper report?
- (A) Some animals and plants from abroad grow better in New Zealand.
 - (B) Some animals and plants from New Zealand are very popular in Taiwan.
 - (C) In Taiwan, some animals and plants from New Zealand do not grow well.
 - (D) In New Zealand, some animals and plants from abroad do not hurt nature.
- (B) 41. What does the reading say about fire ants?
- (A) They are afraid of light.
 - (B) They come from South America.
 - (C) They look as bright as burning fire.
 - (D) They will attack each other for food.
- (B) 42. What does Lin-hua's mother ask her to do now?
- (A) Feed her fish.
 - (B) Clean the floor.
 - (C) Check where her fish comes from.
 - (D) Find out whether the report is true.

Small Rice, Big Dream

Central Taiwan News
May 13, 2008

Two years ago, a small town in Changhua started to grow healthy rice. The healthy rice was not grown by farmers but by students from a small elementary school of only about fifty people.

The idea of growing rice came from the school teachers. When making teaching plans, the teachers decided to teach students how to grow healthy rice on school land. They wanted the students to get closer to the land and learn to help each other when doing the rice farming outside the classroom.

What's better, the school made money from selling the rice and giving farming classes to the public. With the money, the school could help students who wished to go to foreign countries some day. Today the dream is becoming real — the students are flying to Japan to share their special farming experiences, and have fun over there, of course! "We all feel very proud that even students from a small town can make themselves seen in the world," said one of the teachers.

- (A) 43. What is the reading about?
- (A) A successful teaching plan.
 - (B) A new way of cooking rice.
 - (C) A language class for farmers.
 - (D) A famous teacher from a small town.

- (B) 44. Which is said in the reading?
- (A) Farming makes students healthy.
 - (B) Farming helps the school make money.
 - (C) The school bought the land for the farming classes.
 - (D) It is important for farmers to make good use of land.
- (C) 45. What is the dream?
- (A) Growing healthy rice.
 - (B) Building more schools.
 - (C) Visiting a foreign country.
 - (D) Learning outside the classroom.
