Dear Bill, October 12

Long time no see!
 I just came back to Taipei from Europe. 20 hours on the plane really made me tired.

I knew about Typhoon Melissa from the TV news. On TV, I saw many houses in Kaohsiung were damaged. Are you O.K. down there?

The weather in the mountains of Europe was very different from the weather in Taiwan. It was just early October, but it started to snow in the places I stayed.

Still, my trip to Europe was great fun. Before I went, I was worried about the language. I can't speak German or French. But I was surprised to find that English was still useful there! I spoke to people without any problem, and I even made some new friends on the train!

Perhaps I will go to Spain next summer. Will you join me?

Your friend,
Alex

- (D) 37. Where does Bill live?
 (A) In Spain. (B) In Taipei.
 (C) In Germany. (D) In Kaohsiung.
- (C) 38. What was the weather like in the mountains when Alex was there?
 (A) It rained a lot.
 (B) It changes a lot.
 (C) It was winter already.
 (D) There was a terrible typhoon.
- (B) 39. What is true about Alex's experience in Europe?
 (A) He was always worried about the weather.
 (B) He enjoyed it and would like to go there again.
 (C) He was invited to the homes of his new foreign friends.
 (D) He learned some English from a language school there.

(40. ~ 42.)

Reading is an activity people enjoy a lot in their free time. Some like reading newspapers, and others enjoy novels or comic books. I like reading about the lives of great people. This always gives me a lot of ideas on how to make my own life better.

Great people are remembered not because they were handsome or beautiful, but because they did not give up when their lives were difficult. They used every opportunity to change their lives and make the world better.

One good example is Orville and Wilbur Wright, the two brothers who invented the airplane. The plane has made the world into a small village. Hard work, not good luck, is the reason why the Wright Brothers could invent this convenient machine and become remarkable people. Today we still remember them when we see planes in the sky.

When I feel sad, stories of great people always help me feel better. This is why I enjoy reading about great people's lives.

(C) 40. What does “This” mean in the first paragraph?

- (A) Being a great person.
- (B) Living in a special way.
- (C) Reading about the lives of great people.
- (D) Reading newspapers, novels, or comic books.

(D) 41. Which book might the writer be most interested in?

- (A) How to Build a Strong Plane
- (B) Ten Books That Have Made Our World Better
- (C) Use Every Opportunity to Read in Your Free Time
- (D) Michael Jordan: The Man Who Changed Basketball History

(C) 42. What does “remarkable” mean in the third paragraph?

- (A) Nice and polite. (B) Tall and handsome.
- (C) Special and famous. (D) Lucky and interesting.

(43. ~ 45.)

Karen Finley was born in the U.S. in 1956. When she was only fourteen, she became interested in performing. She graduated from a performing arts school in 1981 and then began to perform in theaters. In her performances, she showed people some of the problems in the world.

Karen's The Constant State of Desire was first performed at The Kitchen in New York City in 1986. In this performance she wanted people to notice some of the difficult experiences women have because of men. It soon became controversial. Many people did not feel comfortable with the performance. They thought that Karen hated men too much and was out of control. She was strongly criticized by the newspapers. But some other people thought differently and spoke for her. They said that they felt the experiences Karen showed in this performance were true to life.

Karen hoped that people would think about the sad stories that happen every day. She believed people would understand her and learn some lessons if they could “read” her performances more carefully.

(A) 43. According to the reading, what might “The Kitchen” be?

- (A) A theater.
- (B) A restaurant.
- (C) A newspaper.
- (D) A performance.

(A) 44. According to the reading, why would The Constant State of Desire be controversial?

- (A) It seriously criticized men.
- (B) Karen was not well prepared.

(C) The women who performed with Karen were out of control.

(D) Karen said something bad about newspapers during the performance.

(C) 45. What did Karen Finley want to do by performing?

(A) To make more friends. (B) To become a superstar.

(C) To show people her ideas. (D) To make money for poor women.
