Dear Hong-min,

How have you been? It's been a long time since you wrote me a letter. I miss you a lot.

I started going to 23 in September. My classes begin at 7:00 every evening from Monday to Friday. So far I have studied very hard in every subject. Of all the subjects, math is the most useful to me. Other subjects, like History and Chinese Art, are difficult. 24 is much easier. I'm having a lot of fun with the new language. Maybe I can talk to your American friends some day.

I enjoy my life so much! I almost forget that I am a 60-year old woman, I feel that I am 25 than before.

Best wishes,

Mom

Olivia: Hi, Daniel. I have something to tell you. My brother can't drive us to sunny City on Saturday. He has to work.
 Daniel: Then we'll have to go by ourselves. Let me check the train schedule. How about if we take the 9:00 train?
 Olivia: That's too early. I don't want to get up before nine on Saturday morning.
 Daniel: Well, then, how about the one at eleven o'clock?
 Olivia: I think that would be better. We could have lunch somewhere near the Sunny City Tran Station before we go to the Art Museum.
 Daniel: Don't you think that might make us a little late? We need to be back before five so that we can go to Alice's party.
 Olivia: Oh, I forgot about that. Well, let's take some sandwiches with us. We can have our lunch on the train.
 Daniel: Good idea.

Dear Wendy,

You asked me to send you a picture of my family. Here it is.

The picture was taken in our garden by my cousin. It took me some time to get everyone together. My younger sister, Gigi, was so excited about taking pictures. She made my mom stand between my two brothers, and made my dad walk to the back and then to the front. Finally, she had him sit down under the tree. She even made our dog, Rover, move three times, but Rover did not like the idea of taking pictures, so he ran into doghouse. I am the one behind the doghouse. As for Gigi, can you see where she is?

There are some popular singers these days. Many of their fans enjoy getting together to share their love for the stars. My younger sister, Mei-ling, is one of these fans.

Mei-ling is crazy about Rye Kim. She has been in one of his fan clubs since last year. Mei-ling did not have any close friends before, and she always felt lost and lonely. But she has made many friends with the same interests since she joined the club. Now Mei-ling and her friends are planning a big party for Kim's birthday. Mei-ling is happy, but my dad is not. In fact, he is very worried. Rye Kim is a total stranger to him, and he cannot understand why a man who sings crazy songs can be so important to his daughter. He really hopes that Mei-ling can love her family as much as she loves Rye Kim.

Mr. Adams works from six in the evening to three in the morning, so he cannot see his daughter Cindy very often. He sometimes writes letters to her. Here is a letter he wrote.

Dear Cindy,

I know you like chatting on the Internet. But many people don't use their real names on the Internet. Some of them even make up stories about themselves. Your Internet friends may be very different from what you think they are. So it could be dangerous for you to go out with them. If, in the future, any of your Internet friends ask you to meet with them, you are welcome to invite them to have dinner with us in our house.

Your mom and I have been very busy these days. We really should spend more time together. How about if we go to Kenting next weekend?

Love,
Dad

Heartland is a beautiful town in which cars and motorcycles are not allowed. The town is famous for its blue sky and fresh air. The weather there is nice and warm all the year, so trees and flowers grow well in all seasons.

I went to Heartland last month and stayed there for five days. Every morning I woke up to the songs of birds. Then I would take a walk or ride a bicycle along the country roads. Orchards and gardens were everywhere. Flower shops and coffee houses were also on the way. Every night from my window I could see bright stars in the sky, and I would go to sleep with the smell of grass.

The five-day holiday in Heartland gave me a lot of surprises. I hope I can go there again some day and spend more time there.
