Debbie: sorry, I'm late.

Sharon; I can't believe it! You're two hours late!

Debbie: My car broke down on the road. I forgot to bring my cell phone, and there was no public phone around. So I walked 30 minutes to find one, but it was broken, too! Then it took me another 30 minutes to get a taxi and come here.

Sharon: Where's your car then?
 Debbie: It's somewhere outside town.
 Sharon: So what are you going to do now?
 Debbie: I need to get someone to go and fix it. Can I use your cell phone?
 Sharon: Sure. But how about the dinner? It's your birthday.
 Debbie: New Age is open until 12 o'clock. If you're not in a hurry, we can still go after my car is fixed. Then we can go see a movie, and then.....

Dear Da-ming,

How are you? This is my first time to write to a foreign pen friend. I hope we can become good friends.

I am 13 years old. I live in Cork, the second largest city in Ireland. Many of my friends love sports. Football, for example, is very popular in my school. I enjoy it a lot, but I have not joined any team. I also enjoy cooking and usually cook with my dad on Saturdays.

I'm sending you a CD of Irish songs with this letter. Ireland is a country with beautiful music. The songs on this CD tell many sad stories from Irish history. I like Eoin's voice very much and I hope you will like him, too.

yours,
 Sean

What come to your mind when you hear the word "twins"? Born on the same day? Looking almost the same? Or having the same hobbies? Well, I have a twin brother who was born on a different day from me. We do not look very much alike and we are always interested in different things.

Twelve years ago, my brother, Wayne, was born at eleven fifty-eight on the night of May 28. Five minutes later, I was born-On May 29. Since the time we were born, I have always been heavier and stronger than Wayne, so people usually think I am the older brother.

But Wayne is always smarter than I. He loves reading and learns many things quickly. He knows a lot about animals, although he does not spend much time with our dogs and birds. He knows a lot about bicycles, but never likes to ride bikes as much as I do.

Though we are very different, I love my brother very much, I hope both of us can have a happy life in the future.

( C ) 40. Which is most likely the picture of the twins in the reading?

Dear Grandpa:
I'm so glad that you're finally coming-in three days!
It was Christmas yesterday. We put up a beautiful Christmas tree in the living room. I'm sure you'll like it when you see it.
Lily and I drove two hours to Chinatown in New York City yesterday. We bought a lot of Chinese food there. Mom said you would bring us more snacks from Taiwan. I just can't wait!
All of us will go and pick you up at the airport except Dad. He has to see one of his teachers from high school that day, but he will come back and take us to a big dinner in the evening.
During your two-week stay, we are going to take you to England for one week. I've never been there, either. But I'm sure we're going to have fun in this trip.
